

Nandita Palchoudhuri

Consultant-Curator of Indian folk art, craft and performances

Nandita Palchoudhuri

1B, Gurusaday Rd, #3A,
Calcutta 700019
India

Tel: 91 33 22815707

Mobile +91 9830960439

Email: nandita.palchoudhuri@gmail.com

Website www.nanditapalchoudhuri.in

Personal Details

Date of Birth: October 9th, 1962

Marital Status: Married with two adult children

Professional Qualifications

1998: in Non- Profit Management from New York University, USA

1983: in Advertising and Marketing, IMM, Calcutta

Trained in Indian Classical vocal music, in the Guru-Shishya Parampara by the leading exponent of the Benaras Gharana, Smt. Girija Devi

Educational Qualifications

1984: Honours Graduate in Education, Economics and Political Science from Calcutta University

1981: ISC from the Delhi Board

1978: ICSE from the Delhi Board

Clore Chevening Scholar in Cultural Leadership-, 2011-2013, UK Government

1B, Gurusaday Road, Calcutta 700019, India
Tel No 2281 5707 & 22892189: Mobile 98309 60439
Email: nandita.palchoudhuri@gmail
www.nanditapalchoudhuri.in

Career Graph

A cultural entrepreneur with very strong international and grassroots network.

Works as a Consultant -Curator with Indian Folk Practices in the Visual Arts, Crafts and Performances.

Creates cutting edge functional applications using traditional skills to address a current social need. Explores the possibility of Art to reexamine the old and create new relationships between social engagement and aesthetic gesture.

This process helps to regenerate the craft as well as provide income for the artisan.

- Independent Consultant -Curator of Indian Folk Art, Craft and Performances
- Ex-Chairperson- Trustee on the board of the India Foundation for the Arts headquartered in Bangalore. (www.indiaifa.org)
- Governing Committee - Alliance Francaise du Bengale
- Trustee - Academy Of Fine Arts
- Member - International Initiative for Social Philanthropy(Ford Foundation)
- Trustee - Calcutta Regeneration Trust
- Trustee - Calcutta UK Carnival Trust
- Governing Committee - Calcutta School of Music
- Trustee - Neemrana Music Foundation (New Delhi)
- Trustee - Sapphire Dance
- Member - Paramparik Karigar, Mumbai
- Member - Expert committee on West Bengal, Indian Chamber of Commerce.

2000 onwards : Member - Crafts Council of West Bengal

1998-2000: Secretary - Crafts Council of West Bengal

1996-1998: Assistant - Secretary Crafts Council of West Bengal

1991-1996: Member - Crafts Council of West Bengal

2016

- Mediator for the New Patrons Project run by Goethe Institute, Germany-based in India
- Invited by Goethe Institute to Weimar, Germany as a Participant Speaker at the Weimar Culture Symposium on the Sharing Economy.
- Invited by Pro Helvetia to Research and produce report on –Handcrafts in a Mature Economy-Switzerland
- Speaker at the Crafts Council of India National meet

2015

- Consultant to a Indian start up HoobySeekho.com that connects Trainers and Students of the Arts, online
- Consultant to Jan Sahas to devise Arts based income generation for freed Manual Scavengers in Madhya Pradesh

1B, Gurusaday Road, Calcutta 700019, India
Tel No 2281 5707 & 22892189: Mobile 98309 60439
Email: nandita.palchoudhuri@gmail
www.nanditapalchoudhuri.in

- In the process of designing a cross cultural project (M)otherland with UK partners to engage Indian Diaspora through craft
- Speaker at The Kolkata Literary Festival , National Library, CIMA Talks, Pushpbitan International
- Presented a collaborative performance with Odissi classical Dance and Musicians of the ITC SRA

2014

- Consultant to the Arts acre Foundation to set up the largest multiarts facility with a Museum of Bengal Modern Art in India
- Consultant to a UK Film project with young artisans of Patachitra practice in Medinipur

2013

- Presented a Collaborative Lights Installation at Jantar Mantar Delhi , for Bonjour India with Patrick Rimoux ,France and Chandannagar Lights
- Consultant to Dance Theatre Project, 'Dialogues' with Sasha Waltz and Guests, Germany at a heritage building site in Kolkata
- Wrote a comprehensive report on cultural institutions in the UK as a basis for the British Council project Re-imagine as apart of the Clore-Chevening secondment
- Designing of a transactional English teaching module for artisans ,delivered through a telephone app in collaboration with the British Council and with knowhow from ITC(UN agency) in Geneva

2011

- Created an Outdoor Installation in collaboration with a Scottish Artist , in Edinburgh during the Edinburgh Festival made of Shola. The prime purpose of this exercise was to introduce waterproofing to the delicate raw material in order to expand its end use.
- Contributions to Art Magazines, Publications and Books on Contemporary Interventions in Craft

2010

- Invited by the French Government to study the Lyon Festival of Lights and other Cultural Institutions in Paris for future Collaborations.
- Developed a prototype for a Artisans Chamber of Commerce with assistance from IBM ,USA using West Bengal as a pilot area.

1B, Gurusaday Road, Calcutta 700019, India
 Tel No 2281 5707 & 22892189: Mobile 98309 60439
 Email: nandita.palchoudhuri@gmail
www.nanditapalchoudhuri.in

- Initiated a organization in Calcutta "Anantara" that presents total site specific cultural entertainment . Have presented Malavika Sarukai on the Hooghly, Anurupa Roy, Navtej Johar against the Calcutta Skyline on a heritage building, Qawali from Nizammuddin Dargah,A rock band in fusion with Folk artists, Odissi within the Govertment Art College etc

2009

- Creating artistic work in Collaboration with French artists using Indian Traditional Techniques for the India Exhibition, Centre Pompidou 2011
- Consultant Expert on the board of the Cultural Mapping Project of the Goethe Institute
- Invited as Indian Representative to the Visitors Programme, Berlin
- Principle consultant to Kolkata Fashion Week, for collection of Traditional Bengal Weaves .
- Invited to Johannesburg ,and Durban, Zululand ,Pmb ,South Africa to speak on transformation of Traditional Craft into contemporary practice-highlighting the Traditional Scroll painters evolution to Community Health Workers. Supported by ICCR, and the Durban Art Gallery
- Creating knock down Marquee in the traditional Pandals style for Zoo Lake Johannesburg as a part of the Shared Histories Festival,2009

2008

- Developing Traditional Rod puppets and their Performances to suit HIV awareness campaigns in partnership with Dr. David Gere, UCLA,USA
- Signature images of Durham,UK incorporated in the traditional Giant Gates that span the roads of Calcutta during the Durga Festival. The Bamboo panels are encrusted with 120,000 hand wrapped bulbs and animated to create a spectacle, unique to Chandannagar in Eastern India. Exhibited as a part of Enlightenment Festival, Nov 2008. Has since won the Best Event-UK award from Arts Journal.

2007

- Design and Implementation of an Arts and Public health project in Medinipur in collaboration with Dr. David Gere of UCLA and the UNESCO and UNAIDS. The project uses traditional scroll paintings and accompanying narrative songs as a communication tool for HIV awareness in rural Bengal in partnership with health workers.

1B, Gurusaday Road, Calcutta 700019, India
 Tel No 2281 5707 & 22892189: Mobile 98309 60439
 Email: nandita.palchoudhuri@gmail
www.nanditapalchoudhuri.in

- Lecture-Presentation at the CHINA ART ACADEMY showcasing the shadow puppet forms of India in Hangzhou, China.
- Redesigning the traditional Pandal building techniques of Bengal to make knock down, transportable versions that can be erected anywhere in the world as PUBLIC ART without involving the transportation of the labour force. This project is in the pipeline with partners in UK
- Co curator at the MAKE ART STOP AIDS exhibition, opening in Los Angeles in Feb 2008. It features work from Brazil, South Africa , India and the US and will travel to the 4 regions .
- Invitee at Ford Foundation seminar for Impact Assessment of Foundations, in St Petersburg, Russia
- Lecture Demonstration on contemporary installations created by Traditional artisans, using traditional materials in Auckland and Wellington ,New Zealand.

2006

- Cultural Consultant to Pina Bausch, Germany for the creation of her new "India piece" , during her visit to India.
- Scroll painting workshops and lecture- demonstration on the ancient story telling form of Bengal in Auckland and Wellington ,New Zealand.
- Designing and creating five 9 ft high ,3 dimensional "Bula di " Mascots for HIV awareness using the Chandannagore Bulb techniques for Durga Puja in Calcutta to be viewed by Over a million people over 5 days.
- Invitee at Ford Foundation International Initiative for Social Philanthropy meeting, Dakar, Senegal and Salvador, Brazil
-
- Design, Workshop and Implementation of Traditional Scrolls as communication tools for HIV awareness in Medinipur and Sundarbans , West Bengal in collaboration with Dr. David Gere, UCLA. USA.

2005

- Lecture- demonstration of muslin weaving and sculpture crafts with master craftsmen in Madrid ,for CASA ASIA
- Installation in the form of Giant Goddess Kali, and ritual Horse with master artisans in Barcelona for CASA ASIA
- Co- Curating an exhibition of HIV related Art works at UCLA, Los Angeles with work from USA, South Africa and Brazil and India-opening Dec1st, 2006.

1B, Gurusaday Road, Calcutta 700019, India
 Tel No 2281 5707 & 22892189: Mobile 98309 60439
 Email: nandita.palchoudhuri@gmail
www.nanditapalchoudhuri.in

- Recreating the Electric bulb "Bajra", the peacock Boat to be displayed under Hungerford Bridge by the Thames river.
- Electric light installation at Blackpool , UK to celebrate 125 years of illumination in the Chandannagore style.
- Invitee to Ford Foundation IISP initiative at Budapest and Puerto Rico.

2004

- David Gere, based on Scroll Paintings of Bengal, in July 2004 Speaker at the World Aids Day Conference at UCLA on "Make Arts Stop Aids", in December 2004
- A two week presentation by The Giant Animal Puppets of Orissa , in New Zealand through a proscenium presentation, Walkabout ,and Workshops, in October 2004,supported by ICCR
- Indian representative for the Crafts industry at Asia Business week at Milan, Italy October 2004 as part of the Government delegation.
- Presenting a project at the International Seminar on Arts and Aids supported by the UNAIDS foundation and in partnership with Prof

2003

- Speaker at an International Conference on access to Heritage and Environment, .Presented by Interculture, Harewood House, Barbados Museum ,English Heritage
- Speaker at On route-International Carnival Conference in SOAS, London,
- Speaker at National Mela Conference at Bradford, in UK,
- Commissioned to create a Mughal temporary space 24mt x 8 mt x 6mt with the Brodsworth Hall in the backdrop using indigenous Marquee building techniques of Bengal using cotton cloth, coir rope and bamboo for the Chintz Yatra, UK, August 2003.
- Commissioned to design and create the centre piece for the Mayor's Thames Festival, London , a illuminated sculpture in the shape of a 7 mt X3 mt mythical Boat- Bajra, in September 2003
- A month long Workshops with a traditional artisan for the Asia Alive project at the Asian Art Museum, in the USA, in Nov,2003. Traditional artisans of India,the trends in craftsmanship and design, will be the primary focus using SHOLA sculpture as a medium.
- Co curated the first Calcutta Carnival with 150 costumes of the Thames Carnival, London and 500 additional Folk performers and school children, on 14th December,2003 with the British High Commission and Kinetika of London.

1B, Gurusaday Road, Calcutta 700019, India
 Tel No 2281 5707 & 22892189: Mobile 98309 60439
 Email: nandita.palchoudhuri@gmail
www.nanditapalchoudhuri.in 2002:

- In collaboration with an American partner, instituted a scholarship for 2 women painters and printmakers to visit Vermont Art Center, USA each year for a month long training programme. This will be a recurring grant.
- Conducted performances –workshops with Giant Animal Puppets of Orissa for the Visions International Festival , Brighton UK, October 2002.
- Performances –Workshops at Belfast for the Belfast Queens International Festival.
- Interactive workshops connecting Indian school children with those in Britain in both places using Drumming techniques, Mask building Puppet building methods.
- Facilitated partnerships for a number of of direct access between artisan and the foreign market.
- Presented a 4 day seminar-workshop on the traditional playing cards of India, called Gangifa, with the last set of surviving artisan-participants from Bengal and Maharashtra at Sawantwadi, near Goa. A panel of specialists, collectors, and designers were present to discuss and generate new ideas regarding the future application of this form.

2001:

- A set of Electric Light Installations using animated miniature electric bulbs on a bamboo grid in the style of Chandanagore, West Bengal, mounted in Belfast , N.Ireland in November 2001 ,as a part of the Belfast Festival ,in the Queens Gallery. This is the first initiative to take this outdoor street art to an art form that can be exhibited in a gallery and museum. Several community outreach workshops, and lecture demonstrations were organized by the Queens University.
- In collaboration with the National Museums of Scotland, in Edinburgh extensive workshops with a group of 5 Indian performers/craft persons October 2001 in Edinburgh on the theme of Dushera resulting in the creation of a 40 foot Ravana.
- A series of Pottery, Block printing/Tie -dye workshops with rural artisans and city children at a premium school in Calcutta. This is part of an initiative to launch an “experience your heritage ” programme
- Consultant for a Dutch group, Planet Junior, to identify talented under privileged children in the field of Dance Music, theatre and other performances to create a collaborative work under an international Art director to tour South Africa, Holland, India etc.

1B, Gurusaday Road, Calcutta 700019, India
Tel No 2281 5707 & 22892189: Mobile 98309 60439
Email: nandita.palchoudhuri@gmail
www.nanditapalchoudhuri.in

- Development and display of HIV-Aids Communication tools using traditional folk painting and music For the American Government for use in rural India.
- Participated in a Workshop -Seminar conducted for Festival managers and Art presenters in April 2001,at Calcutta in collaboration with Indian Institute of Management, Calcutta ,Visiting Arts -UK,and the British Council.
- Presented the the opening_event of the Kala Ghoda Festival at the National Gallery of Modern Art in Bombay, in February 2001with 17 Giant Puppets from Eastern India and drummers from Kerela.

2000:

- Independently organized a 10-day mega-event to present 500 years of rural Bengal in December to celebrate the millennium in conjunction with the Bengal Chamber of Commerce and Tata Steel.
- Organized a 7-day exhibition and sale of textiles representing the major weaving styles of India
- Coordinated the Nature Bazaar - an exhibition of eco-friendly handicrafts at Delhi aimed at promoting the production and consumption of environmentally healthy products.

1998:

- Spearheaded a project on the revival of the Portuguese-style of embroidery which was existent in the Upper Hooghly area in the 16th and 17th century with the goal of creating a source of income for the women of the region.
- Involved in Creation of a Crafts Development Centre (a Central Government Conducted interdisciplinary Workshops) for school children and Traditional Crafts in Calcutta at various venues engaging traditional artisans.
- Organized a 7 day Textiles of India exhibit with the Crafts Council of West Bengal ,in Calcutta
- Invited by the Charles Wallace Trust, Visiting Arts and British Council to visit the Edinburgh Festival, to participate in a seminar resulting in India focus activities at the Edinburgh Festivals and at the Manchester Games in 2002.
- Selected to participate in an intensive workshop for Indo-U.K Festival Directors and Managers at Udaipur, conducted on an all India basis by British trainers

1B, Gurusaday Road, Calcutta 700019, India
 Tel No 2281 5707 & 22892189: Mobile 98309 60439
 Email: nandita.palchoudhuri@gmail
www.nanditapalchoudhuri.in 1999:

- Project at the outskirts of Calcutta which facilitates interaction between the different groups of crafts persons in that territory
- Presented a live demonstration of Bengal Crafts to visiting American business heads and the US Health Secretary Ms Shalala at the American Centre designed to raise awareness of Bengal crafts in the US.

1997

- Organized the Philadelphia Exposition - a presentation that simulated a Bengal village with live artisans and demonstrations of Craft for an American audience, at Philadelphia, USA
- Presented Artisans in Live demonstration and sale of Crafts at the Philadelphia – Museum of Art, to commemorate 50 years of Indian Independence

1996:

- Organized Exposition of Crafts of East India with live demonstration by Master Craftspersons, in Houston, USA
- Facilitated the exchange of skills and ideas between craftspersons of Orissa and Bengal by organizing a 7-day workshop .

1995:

- Actively revived authentic modes of traditional embroidery technique of Kantha. Subsequently, a training centre with urban women was set up.
- Coordinated the creative activities of a group of Krishnanagar idol-makers to produce a permanent exhibit for the Peabody Musuem in Salem, USA.

1994:

- Participated in Design and Product Development Conference in Kuala Lumpur as an Indian representative. This was a global seminar organized by the Malaysian Crafts Council. Promoted Bengal textiles to major European buyers such as Habitat and Liberty, London

1991-1993:

- Set up several workshops at the Pottery Centre, Calcutta to develop new designs by facilitating interactive exchanges between an English pottery expert and local potters
- Organized several Craft Expositions in Calcutta

Group head for Promotions
Clarion Advertising Services, Calcutta

1985-1987 Entrepreneur
Canvas Advertising Services

Other Achievements

1988: Toured Japan extensively with a group of six Craftspersons representing the lesser known Crafts of India such as Mithila art of Bihar

1987: Organized the first ever Fund raiser presenting maestros of Indian Classical music in a theme show for the crafts persons relief fund, Eastern India.

1985: Toured USA for the Festival of India with renowned exponents of Indian Classical music for the Festival of India in the capacity of accompanying vocalist

1B, Gurusaday Road, Calcutta 700019, India
Tel No 2281 5707 & 22892189: Mobile 98309 60439
Email: nandita.palchoudhuri@gmail
www.nanditapalchoudhuri.in